Testimonials

I am originally from Somali and came to live in Syracuse in 2018. I attend Corcoran High School and I am a senior.

I joined Syracuse University's Liberty Partnerships Program, (SU LPP) when I was in 10th grade. SU LPP has helped me a lot in the past 2 and half years since I began with them. I have received a lot of one-on-one tutoring with teachers (the Student Advocates /Tutors in LPP) during the school year. When the pandemic shut-down happened beginning in March of 2020, I still received tutoring in Geometry from Ms. Tabesh, and help with US History from Ms. Dahar (Student Advocates /Tutors in SU LPP) on-line. Sometimes the one-on-one tutoring sessions I received were long, often lasting over an hour, but they were willing to work with me for as long of a time as I needed. Now I'm so glad I can come back to the LPP room and see the SU LPP tutors in person!

Sometimes I can also just talk with an advocate about what's going on in my life, as well as getting the academic tutoring that I need. They ask me what my thoughts are about my future -what I want to do after high school and if I would like to attend college. I have told them I plan on going to SUNY OCC next year.

LPP is the most helpful program I have ever been in because I would not have passed some of my courses if not for the tutoring received. I really appreciate that the tutors have been so kind and helpful to me so I can graduate and have this success! I encourage other students to join this program so that they can also succeed by getting the help that they need.

SU LPP has helped me in so many different ways. Coming to the United States, English wasn't my first language. I was struggling with the language and even understanding my classes. I would always come after school to get help and have a better understanding of my subjects. Ever since I was in the 6th grade, LPP has always been a program that was there for me and has even helped me through my own personal problems. Coming in after school and doing fun activities after completing homework motivated me to complete my work faster. My LPP tutors have not been judgmental! So when I would ask for help with a math question, no matter how many times I didn't understand it, they would always repeat it as many times as possible until I fully understood what I was doing and could do it alone. LPP is definitely one of the main factors as to where I am today in life - including maintaining a high GPA through out high school. This is my story but there are a bunch of other students who could benefit from SU LPP the same way I did.
